

<input process date here>

NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES

American Access Casualty Company recognizes the importance of prudently using and safeguarding the private information we collect about you over the course of our relationship. We only collect and use information necessary to conduct business and to provide you service, such as underwriting your policies, servicing your claims and accounts, and offering you other products and services we believe may suit your needs.

The personal information we collect about you may include:

1. Information provided on applications and other forms, such as name, address, and drivers license number.
2. Third-party reports, such as motor vehicle reports, credit reports, and medical reports.
3. Information about our experiences with you, such as your premium payment and claim history.

You have the right to request access to personal information, collected about you, in connection with your insurance transaction.

We do not disclose any personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. We may share information about our transactions and experiences with you within our company and with your insurance broker to better serve you, to assist in meeting your current product and service needs and to handle your claims. We may disclose personal information we collect, as described above, to companies performing marketing or similar service or functions on our behalf. We may also disclose personal information to third parties who collect data regarding claims and driving records for purposes of underwriting and claims handling.

We restrict access to personal information we collect to only those employees who need that information to provide you with our products and services. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal and state standards to safeguard the privacy of your personal information.

This form is valid for One year from the above listed date.

AZIIP081808